Costs

We carry together the costs of the meeting (meals, accommodation, rent of the hall and of the translation equipment...) according to the style of the first christians (Acts 4:32): each participant contributes freely according to his or her possibilities.

This style of sharing wants to be an expression of a deeper sharing and co-responsibility.

What remains, after the expenses are covered, will be sent to the Christian minority in Iraq.

Registration till April 20th 2009
